

THE ROANOKE TIMES.

(DAILY AND WEEKLY) An Independent Democratic paper devoted to the material and political interests of Roanoke and Southwest Virginia.

DO YOU ADVERTISE? To discontinue an advertisement, says John W. Wainwright, "is like taking down your sign. If you want to do business you must let the public know it. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."

HEROIC SELF-SACRIFICE.

It seems to us that legend and history, ancient and modern, contain few instances of sublime unselfishness that will stand comparison for an instant with the present enterprise of the Hon. REED.

The Speaker has interposed his large person directly between the Hon. BENJAMIN HARRISON and the deadly free coinage bill. The Senate bill was speeding toward the political vitals of the President, straight as an arrow to its mark. REED, to the astonishment of all disinterested observers, has jumped forward to receive the shaft.

Mr. Reed might very well have argued to himself: "This is the President's funeral no mine. Shall I twist the rules to the last point of torsion merely to spare him an unpleasant dilemma? Shall I incur the odium of a perhaps unsuccessful attempt to prevent the House from voting upon a measure upon which the House desires to vote, merely to BENJAMIN'S hour may be postponed? He is politically decrepit and moribund, any way. Suppose the silver-tipped shaft does kill him off? Suppose, on the other hand, that he has no intention of claiming the nomination of 1892; what harm can the vote do him? It may do him good. Let the bill be passed!"

No such sordid reasoning stained the Speaker's soul. He did not even pause to ratiocinate. He sprang forward, we say, with unquestioning courage and immeasurable self-abnegation; and we call attention to his chivalric deed, and ask for it the admiration it deserves.

NOT SIGNS OF INSANITY.

The view reported to be entertained by an anonymous New York Democrat, that Mr. CLEVELAND'S constant writing about the tariff question indicates a monomania on that subject, is probably a case of political imagination. That Mr. Cleveland has given much attention to the promulgation of revenue tariff views is unquestionable; but so have Mr. CARLISLE, Mr. MILLS, and others who give tolerably clear indications of retaining a firm grip upon their mental balance.

The criterion which would keep a public man from referring in his letters to the political issues which he supports, would if applied impartially, produce some serious results. Thus, in opposition to Mr. CLEVELAND'S imputation of tariff reform, are some prominent Republican statesmen, who are equally industrious in constantly presenting the arguments in favor of protection; but no one charges that Mr. MCKINLEY or Mr. BLAINE have gone crazy on protection. It may be that some of the politicians have gone insane in regard to Mr. CLEVELAND; but to relegate all of them to insane asylums would rob politics of some of its most prominent, if not every man who rides his political or social hobby rather severely, as showing the indicia of insanity, would be to accept the philosophy of the Cheshire cat, in "Alice in Wonderland," who asserted: "We are all mad."

It is a proverb that the exact point where genius ends and insanity begins is hard to determine; but Mr. CLEVELAND'S mental characteristics are not of the kind that develop into insanity. His career is rather the demonstration of sober and sometimes common-place sense and solidity. It might be hazardous to say that he will never go insane on tariff reform, but it will be more likely that some of the opposing Democrats will go crazy about mugwumpism.

St. LOUIS raises a growl when her expected 500,000 of population is cut to 430,000; Kansas City swells the inharmonious cry when her estimated 175,000 comes down to 100,000, but wait until Chicago's 1,000,000 is cut down to about 750,000, for a howl that will split the blue vault of heaven. But all the same Roanoke will knock Lynchburg's eye out.

HARRISON has sold his birthright for a mess of pottage.

NOTHING - SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.

The reason RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER is the most wonderful medicine, is because it has never failed in any instance, no matter what the disease, from Leprosy to the simplest disease known to the human system.

The scientific men of today claim and prove that every disease is Caused by Microbes, and RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER exterminates the microbes and drives them out of the system, and when that is done you cannot have an ache or pain. No matter what the disease, whether simple case of malaria fever or a combination of diseases, we cure them all at the same time, as we treat all diseases constitutionally.

Asthma, Consumption, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Disease, Chills and Fever, Female Troubles, in all its forms, and, in fact, every disease known to the human system.
